NEVER BEFORE

has anything so startlingly different been offered, at any price.

The U. S. S. ARIZONA has been in commission in active service nearly twenty-one years, and during her last visit to the Navy Yard has, for the first time, had her teak wood quarter-deck renewed.

I offer a piece of the original decking, sawed to a size slightly larger than the standard 6" cover, with a full set of Navy stamps bearing on the face a registered cancellation on the TWENTY-FIRST BIRTHDAY of the ship, and it is considered to be an item unique in the annals of Naval Cover collecting. Each cover which is genuine will be accompanied with the registry receipt covering the item, on the reverse of which will appear the cover number and the total issue.

The unusual cachet will be BURNED into this historic wood, and since the work of hand-burning each item will be great, and require considerable time, the right is reserved to decline orders which exceed the available supply of decking or are not received by September 15th, although every effort will be made to care for each subscriber. All orders will be promptly acknowledged.

It is trusted that the significance of this extraordinary souvenir will be appreciated. The cost is $2.00 per copy, postpaid and insured, under separate cover to prevent breakage or other damage.

A Complete Edward Collection

ENGLISH STAMPS PROVIDE COLLECTORS WITH INTERESTING SPECIALIZED DISPLAY—FEW MINOR VARIETIES HAVE APPEARED DURING BRIEF USE OF SHORT SET OF PRETTY ADHESIVES

By W. E. Potter in The Philatelic Magazine

WITH the advent of the new Georgian issue, collectors all over the world are completing their collections of the last reign. Short as the issue has been, a good range of material has been provided for us. In order to assist philatelists in completing the series, arranging and writing up their pages, the data below may prove acceptable. It is in sections divided into the various classes of stamps.

The design seems to have been based on one submitted by Mr. H. J. Brown, but the head was taken from a photograph by Hugh Cecil Portraits Ltd., and is admirably suited for reproduction by the photogravure process.

Watermark

E8R
Dates of issue—Sept. 1, 36 ½d, 1½d & 2½d
Sept. 14, 36 1d

Sheets. There are only four values, and being so few in number, it is a good idea to mount blocks of four or more on the title page of the collection.

Booklet Stamps. These provide the usual normal and inverted watermarks, and with only three values one can mount a booklet page of each value.

Booklet Controls. These appear at the bottom left corner of the sheet (with or without advertisements in the 1½d value). A block of each value showing the control is worth adding to any collection.

The list of these is—

½d	E2	E4
1d	F3	F6
1½d	G5	G7

Coil Varieties. From the vending machines, two values, ½d and 1d, and I suggest the collectors get the outer band of a coil with one or two stamps attached, and also the last two stamps complete with the final "dummy." This page should also contain the latest vending machine experiment, the 6d booklet containing four 1½d stamps.

Controls and Cylinder Numbers. A complete collection of these is not too ambitious as they can be collected in singles or in blocks of three or six. As is usual, the cylinder numbers are in two varieties, the number itself and also followed by a dot. It was rather a surprise that the second series was lettered A/37 as it is customary to advance the letters in each series. The list of these is as follows:

CONTROL A/36

½d cylinders 2, 4, 5, 7, 10, 12, 13, 15, 16
1d cylinders 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7
1½d cylinders 2, 4, 6, 8, 9, 12, 13, 15, 16
2½d cylinders 2

A variety of the 2½d is known with a thick line below "36".

CONTROL A/37

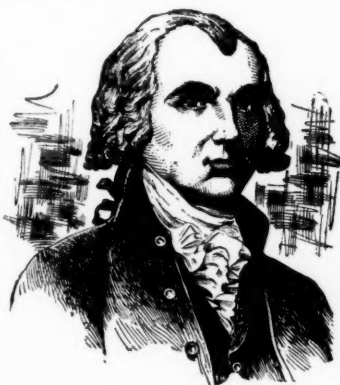

½d cylinders 21, 22, 24, 25, 26
1d cylinders 13
1½d cylinders 13, 15, 16, 17, 20
2½d cylinders (none noted)

The side and bottom margins are imperforate on all except ½d A/36, cylinder 16, which is known (without period) with the bottom perforated, and the side imperforate.

Constitution--Madison's Idea

On the seventeenth of September, 1787, the delegates to one of the most important gatherings of American statesmen in history signed the document upon which they had been working since May 28 of that year. The scene was in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, and the document was the Constitution of the United States of America.

Difficult as was the writing of such an all-embracing law of the land, the signing of this completed draft was but the half-way point on the long road to its acceptance by the people of the nation. Ratification was achieved in several states by very narrow margins with Rhode Island last to swing in line—a state which was not even represented at the Philadelphia convention.

On Sept. 17 of this year the Post Office Department will issue what promises to be a striking stamp that pictures these early statesmen gathered for the signing of the Constitution—an instrument that even now is playing a dramatic role in the supreme court situation. In the 150 years of its guidance of the affairs of the United States, the Constitution has been amended several times to permit the government and the people to meet new problems. The Constitution might be called the brain child of James Madison for it was he who drew the earliest sketch of this plan of government. Among noted statesmen of the time who opposed the convention was Samuel Adams and the signatures of several others do not appear on the original document. John Adams and Thomas Jefferson were abroad at the time, John Jay and Patrick Henry did not sign.

which appeared in the margin of some sheets on the cylinder 10 printing. It is a fainter impression of the cylinder number, and there is some speculation as to its cause. It is definitely not an offset. There is the normal entry below the control and the fainter figures appear against the fifth and seventh stamps from the bottom, and in the corresponding three positions at the top of the sheet.

British Zone. (Overprinted in black, Morocco agencies)

1d and 2½d

French Zone. (Overprinted as above, but with the addition of the values as follows)
5 centimes on 1½d
15 centimes on 1½d

Spanish Zone. (With the overprint and the values below)

5 centimes on 1½d
10 centimes on 1d
15 centimes on 1½d
25 centimes on 2½d

Tangier. (Overprinted Tangier)
½d, 1d and 1½d

This overprint has provided an interesting variety. Normally the length of these words are Morocco 14mm. and Agencies 15mm. On the following values it also appears with Morocco in 15mm. and Agencies in 15½mm.

There is also on the 2½d the AGENCIES error.

British zone—1d and 2½. Spanish zone—10c.

"Mayia" Unmasked

Last week I received a letter from an old friend who is now located in Colombia and he sends us a tip on identification of the design of a Cuban stamp that has puzzled some of us for a long while. My friend lived and worked a long while in Cuba and he had devoted a lot of time to the whys and wherefores of island issues. He refers now to Scott's illustration A32 in the Cuban section.

The man pictured on the stamp is identified as "Mayia." This is like labeling a portrait of Benjamin Franklin as "Ben." "Mayia," explains my correspondent, was a nickname for Jose Maria Rodriguez. Rodriguez was not accorded a place in the International Encyclopedia but it seems that he was quite a figure in Cuban history just the same.

When a little boy he was unable to correctly pronounce the name Maria, calling it Mayia. This nickname stuck to him all through life, even during his career in the army. Even the inscription on the stamp is limited to this name of his childhood.

Will You Help Us?

We have received so many letters from our auction clients asking for information as to what certain individual lots may bring that we have considered writing our catalogs placing minimum starting bids on each lot. This is the common practice in Europe, but would be quite an innovation in sales in the United States. Before embarking upon this experiment we would like to have the opinion of collectors at large.

This advertisement appears in four leading philatelic publications and ballots are sent to all clients on our mailing list. Will you vote on this? A post card will do, or return this ad with opinion checked.

1. Would you be adversely influenced by a catalog in which reasonable starting bids are published? . . . such starting bids to represent a figure below the current market value.
2. Would a catalog with published starting bids be of assistance to you as a guide to bidding? . . . such starting bids would represent the price which we ourselves are willing to pay for identical material. We will back up this statement by purchasing anything suitable which may be offered to us at corresponding figures.

Let us hear from you. Results of this poll will be made public. Closing date August 31, 1937.

Plate numbers for the Virginia Dare commemorative postage stamp, which is to be placed on sale at Manteo, N. C., Aug. 18, are as follows: 21697, 21698, 21699, 21700.

It is strongly rumored that Postmaster General Farley will sell the first sheet (or sheets) of this stamp to President Roosevelt, who will be at Manteo that day for an address.

At the request of Linn readers who obtained The Washington Times prize cachet commemorating the ninetieth anniversary of the issuance of the first United States adhesive postage stamps, a

They Seek Truth

Dr. Charles H. Evans has been elected president of the Souvenir Issues Association, an unusual organization that has established its headquarters in New York. Composed of more than fifty members who are devoted to the collecting of souvenir stamp issues the group has for its objective, the uncovering of all facts behind release of such stamps. Separation of legitimate printings from speculative enterprises will occupy this organization. Dues are but $1 per year and information may be obtained from R. L. Cullum, secretary, 26 Hamilton road, Glen Ridge, N. J.

The designer of the Danube shipping commemoratives was Franz Retzl, an Academy printer.

Editor's Comment

OUR POSITION Recently we discussed MADE CLEAR speculative stamps in this column and dwelt upon the Spanish Goyas in particular. It so happened that in the same edition Lambert Gerber, a dealer, advertised Goya sets. Mr. Gerber read the editorial and concluded that we had stood him up and shot him down, that is, we had accepted his advertising with the intention of disparaging the items he offered.

On the face of the situation some readers may have reached the same conclusion. That is not true. The editor,

HELD BROTHERS

1941—73rd St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

In response to many inquiries and requests to offer another Vacation Fun Mixture, like last year's, I have decided to do it again—and do it right. This year I am, therefore, offering no less than

5 NEW "VACATION FUN" MIXTURES
AS USUAL AT SUMMER BARGAIN PRICES

This is not a rummage or clean-up sale. Everything is our usual good grade PADE QUALITY MIXTURES, in many cases fresh supplies specially imported for this event. The make-up of the various grades is entirely different from any of our standard numbers—and the prices are real bargains, as everybody can see. Something for every purse.

If you are too busy now or having a good time outdoors stock up now for your winter's fun.

Grade	Contents made up from:	1 lb.	2 lbs.	5 lbs.	10 lbs.	25 lbs.	Postage
A	8 diff. mixtures	$.85	$1.50	$3.50	$ 6.50	$15.00	always
B	12 diff. mixtures	$1.10	$2.00	$4.75	$ 9.00	$21.25	extra
C	16 diff. mixtures	$1.35	$2.50	$6.00	$11.50	$27.50	please,
D	23 diff. mixtures	$1.60	$3.00	$7.25	$14.00	$33.75
E	30 diff. mixtures	$1.85	$3.50	$8.50	$16.50	$40.00

Needless to say that I specially recommend grade E which I don't believe can be beaten for variety in comparison to the low price. Try at least a 2 lb. lot for better variety.

One pound of each of the above 5 grades A, B, C, D and E, separately packed, for $6.25; 2 lbs. of each kind $11.50; 5 lbs. of each $28.25; 10 lbs. of each $55.00; 20 lbs. of each kind, 100 lbs. in all, for $100.00 and some bargain that is. Postage, express or freight extra.

If you just want stamps—loads of them—try our #28 FRANCE MISSION MIXTURE at the special August "give away" price of 2 lbs. for only $1.00 (around 4000 stamps to the lb.); 5 lbs. $2.35; 10 lbs. $4.50 and 25 lbs. for only $10.50 or practically 1c per 100 stamps. Postage extra.

having nothing to do with the business end of the magazine, was unaware that a Goya advertisement was appearing in the same issue with the editorial until the magazine was sent to press. There was no malice aforesaid so far as Mr. Gerber was concerned. He protests that the stamps offered are not late reprints such as those denounced in the editorial and asks that we clear his reputation.

May we remind this advertiser that virtually every stamp dealer in the country has Goyas in stock and most of them, at some time or another, have advertised the material. We had hoped that every dealer would read the editorial and seriously ponder whether he should continue to encourage governments to issue stamps of a speculative nature by carrying such items in stock.

There is no reason to doubt Mr. Gerber's word and we so state the facts in connection with the incident.

Mr. Gerber was so incensed at what he thought unfair treatment of his name and business that he was on the point of breaking his advertising contract with us. We trust that after reading this editorial he, and other advertisers, will see our point of view and respect us for doing the thing which we believe is right. We do not want to lose business for, after all, Linn's Weekly Stamp News is not a plaything—it is a business that supplies a livelihood for fourteen employees of Linprint. We do not want to lose business, we are struggling constantly to get more. But there is another side to the picture.

Shall the editor of a stamp magazine fill his publication with pleasant little anecdotes about millionaire collectors, encyclopedia rewrites on stamp design and blurs for the stamp merchants who buy full page advertisements? Shall he do this for fear that if he publishes critical remarks he shall be penalized by loss of advertising?

Well, to tell the truth, we have often wondered if such might be the case when we look over the pages of certain contemporary magazines. Such twiddle and twaddle and petty gossip fill their columns. Seldom are their articles of a really informative nature and almost never do the editors express themselves in positive terms. Perhaps these gentlemen have already passed through the experiences that Linn's new editor has just encountered and, perhaps, they find life sweeter to steer clear of anything that might offend their advertisers. If so, we extend our condolences and we are sorry that we missed their funerals.

Linn's Weekly Stamp News will continue to publish that which the editors believe is of importance to its readers. If we err in our editorial opinion we will welcome the protests and we will go to the bottom of the thing and straighten it out. We will not change our position on any question simply because a matter of dollars and cents is involved. The reader and the advertiser would find it difficult to think well of us if the magazine management should be so wishy-washy.

At hand is a copy of that venerable publication, Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News, in which there is an editorial that pretty much tells the story of general philatelic journalism. Says Editor Wylie:

"Generally speaking we regard it as bad psychology for the philatelic press to allow its columns to be used for such propaganda . . . (referring to criticism of the government for too frequent issues of postage stamps). It fosters in the collecting mind the idea that one is being buncoed in his collecting interest . . . Be a booster for the hobby! Enter your protest at Washington rather than poison the mind of collectors who may have been enlisted by one of the commemorative stamps you condemn."

Surely Mr. Wylie, himself an editor of long experience, does not believe that the hobby will be the better for silence upon topics that might help a collector to get the most out of the hobby. There is much to learn in stamp collecting and the trial and error method is not only costly but is much more likely to sour the collecting urge than the critical opinions of any editor. No, we cannot agree with Mr. Wylie. We were too long in the daily newspaper business to be converted now to a policy of whitewash silence. And that goes for both United States and foreign stamps. We respectfully insist that an editor who lacks an opinion might better be practicing his music lesson.

George W. Linn, our managing editor, has made several unsuccessful attempts to interest other stamp magazine publishers in forming an organization that would approve or reject all advertising submitted for publication in philatelic magazines, hoping thereby to render a real service to collectors. Mekeel's and Stamps were among those approached. He received no encouragement. It is a sad state of affairs when one man and one magazine are left to champion alone the best interests of millions of stamp collectors. Perhaps that is one of the reasons this magazine has 18,000 paid in advance subscribers.—D. H.

Airpost Covers

C. A. HUNTER, SYRACUSE, NEBR.

Dear Friends:

We recently received a letter from a reader of Linn's in which he made disparaging remarks about the magazine because of failure to receive covers for a couple of cachets mentioned in this department. We inquired into detail concerning the cachets and find no fault on the part of the cachet director.

The notice concerned a cachet sponsored by V. C. Timmerman of Brooklyn, N. Y., for the anniversary of Lindbergh's flight to be mailed at Paris and one for the departure of the International Air Race from Paris to the U. S. Through a misunderstanding on the part of the French co-operator, both sets of covers were held off because of the refusal of the department of commerce to permit the U. S. fliers to participate.

Mr. Timmerman is planning two substitute covers for these events but it takes time to print the covers, re-address them, secure the return of the old ones and send the new set out. Mr. Timmerman is a navy man and has no intention of defrauding anyone who sent covers but the party who wrote to us in the first place failed to write to Mr. Timmerman and did not give him a chance to defend himself. Anyone who has sent for the covers of Mr. Timmerman and has any grievance, should address it to him at Box 34, Station Y, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Adams pick-up method of air mail service was put in operation by the Tri-State Aviation Corporation of Wheeling, W. Va., at Lexington, Ky., on July 25. A blue printed cachet was applied with an additional winged circle cachet in red. This was an unexpected event, according to a letter from Burton Battelle of 427 West Second Street, Lexington, Ky., and very few covers were mailed. Anyone wishing information as to who may have extra covers of this flight should contact the above address.

Escanaba, Mich., dedicated its municipal airport on July 27 with a box cachet printed in blue. These were out a little over a year ago.

CANADIAN FLIGHTS

Service will be inaugurated between The Pas, Manitoba, Sturgeon Landing, Sask., and Cumberland House, Sask. Several cachets will be applied for the following flights: The Pas-Sturgeon Landing; The Pas-Cumberland House; Cumberland House-The Pas; and Sturgeon Landing-The Pas. The inauguration will occur about Sept. 8 and covers must be in the hands of the district superintendent of postal service at Sankatoon, Sask., Canada, by Sept. 2. Postage on these routes by air mail is 6 cents.

Experts have discovered many errors in the Official List of United States Postage Stamps, issued by the government printing office for the Post Office Department, but the necessary corrections already are being made in anticipation of a new edition.—Washington Star.

COLLECTIONS WANTED

Mr. Wilfred P. Betts
P. O. Box 143
Elsie, Michigan
Dear Mr. Betts:

213 Foch Street
Ellwood City, Pa.
June 14, 1937

I received your check in full payment for my collection comprising fourteen divisions of United States and Foreign Stamp issues. The transaction has proved entirely satisfactory and I feel confident we both have benefited.

Your promptness and straight forward handling of the purchase makes it possible for me to recommend you to all my friends in Philatelic circles. Yours very truly, Wellington J. Ramsey.

Past President U.S.A.
Past Vice Pres. B.C.P.S.
Sponsor Ellwood City Jr. Stamp Club.

I will pay prompt cash for your collection. I buy many large collections through the State Savings Bank, Elsie, Mich. The letter above from Mr. W. J. Ramsey is one of many letters of thanks for a fair price and prompt attention. Mr. Ramsey's collection was handled through the State Savings Bank. If your collection is for sale, why not ship it to my bank today? I am always in the market for nice U. S. and general collections, air mails, or specialized lots. On a large lot, I am prepared to call anywhere within 1000 miles.

New "Cover" Idea

An unusual item in the naval cover line is being offered collectors in this edition of Linn's Weekly Stamp News by Donald L. Crutcher of Long Beach, Calif. Mr. Crutcher obtained a section of timber from the old decking of the U. S. S. Arizona recently and cut it into thin pieces slightly larger than a standard envelope. A cachet has been hand-burned into each piece which will be franked with a complete Navy commemorative set.

Error to Be Listed

Gibbons' Stamp Monthly reports that one sheet of 100 stamps of the current Greek 5L postage due stamps (Scott's #665), has been found with the design doubly printed. Sixty stamps were used in the normal way and are lost as far as collectors are concerned, but the remaining 40 are in existence and have been shown to them. The doubling is very plain and they intend listing the error in their 1938 catalog.

DOUBLE LINE CATALOGUE

The Double Line Electro catalogue is at hand and is all it is supposed to be. The catalogue is the same size as the Bureau Print edition but with a different binding. I think they call it plastic binding. Sixteen pages are devoted to explanation, illustrations and the history of the double line electros. Quoting the book itself as to the pricing, "The prices shown are net market values for specimens fully perforated, in good condition, the design of which does not touch the perforations at any point." Throughout the book one finds illustrations and notes galore, in fact a pretty rank beginner could take this book and get along very nicely. We think that a lot of the prices are pretty high, higher than a lot of collectors will want to pay, but they are no doubt very reasonable if you consider the scarcity of the stamps. Your copy can be obtained from Hoover Brothers, the publishers, or most any of the larger precancel dealers can supply you. The price is $1.

REUSE

Not until I had my attention called to it had I considered the reused question but little more than something to talk about and speculate on. The following article from the SCORPION, the official organ of the New York Precancel Club, brings to light the fact that there are those engaged in this nefarious business, and that the methods the department suggests of putting an end to it are also of interest to all of us. Here it is:

"A news-release from the Associated Press, run in 'Justine' Bacharach's Stamp column in the New York American Sunday, July 24, indicates that the phobia, complex, fixed idea and so forth of the postal inspectors as to reuse of precancels has led them to recommend that the Post Office Department precancel values up to 2 cents only.

"It's time that these chappies got wise to themselves.

"They have a perfect phobia on reuse, and they perfectly well could locate and catch and jail the reusers by the use of a little ingenuity. We'll bet that if one of them came to this club he could find out very easily, when properly introduced, who had approached our members from time to time, trying to buy duplicates from us to peddle to the reuse men.

"It isn't enough that they have to put through that perfectly absurd and foolish ruling about not letting collectors have permits; it isn't enough that they have to deface precancels with crayon; now they want to limit precancelling.

"The profit the post office makes on precancels that never do duty and go into collections direct (degummed to be legal, of course) probably covers most of the actual proven loss thru reuse."

Mrs. William S. McCoy, wife of a prominent Middle West collector, passed away recently at the family home in Independence, Mo.

Broadway Chatter

By Bi Stander

The New Guinea Coronation set is reported as having greatly increased in price. The consensus of opinion was that it would rival the Southern Rhodesia set. Though not as pretty as the Southern Rhodesia, it had a shorter life. Whether this information is true remains to be seen but we know several wholesalers who have raised their prices on the New Guinea.

Reports from England to the effect that Dominica first day covers are very good will not down. At any rate dealers in covers here have followed the suit of dealers across the pond.

Some values of the airmail set of Peru have been seen here and some are so similar to those of the previous set that they are difficult to identify. The five surcharged stamps of the Peru set that came out recently—the airmails—should be good as they were in issue but a short time.

Herman Herst, Jr., who is making a trip through Europe, is reported to have become engaged to a German girl while in Berlin. Herman, when in New York, is located at 116 Nassau street.

Ned Hilton, a cartoonist in the Saturday Evening Post, pictures a maid using the vacuum cleaner while the man of the house is working on his stamps.

The end of the device is near the stamps and we hear a horrified sentence from the philatelist, "Good Heavens! There go all my British Colonies."

Rockwell Kent, writing in the New York Times, states: "The United States Bureau of Engraving and Printing has degraded postage stamp design to such a level that the public should at last take some action in its own defense. The recent 3-cent stamp commemorating the Ordinance of 1787 is probably the ugliest and most thoroughly offensive postage stamp that has ever been issued by any government."

Postmasters swear when first day covers are called for by collectors, but maybe the postmaster at Saratoga Springs recently did some fancy cussing because 10,000 picture postcards were sent out by visitors on the opening day of the races at this famous New York spa.

Random Notes

An expert in the stamps of Panama and the Canal Zone has returned to the United States from Gatun to reside in Houston, Texas. He is Nathan L. Levy, who was one of the men who had an important part in the building of the Panama Canal. During thirty years on the isthmus Mr. Levy carried on his collecting and has represented numerous European buyers of Central American stamps.

Contrary to an announcement recently in our airport column, S. P. A. officials state that the airport at Asheville, N. C., will not be dedicated during the Society of Philatelic Americans' convention Aug. 26-28. Construction of the port is not far enough advanced to permit announcement of dedication date.

The first edition of the Double Line Electro Precancel Catalogue has reached us from Hoover Brothers, the publishers. The book of seventy-four pages contains a great deal of information about this specialized line of collecting and is priced at $1. It has an attractive plastic binding. Detailed discussion of the text of the catalogue will appear in the precancel department.

Vahan Moizan will conduct an auction of United States and foreign Stamps at the S. P. A. convention at Asheville, N. C., Aug. 27. Catalogues of the sale are available from Moizan at 10 East 39th street, New York.

Thousands of collectors are expected to attend the two-day meeting arranged for them at the Greater Texas and Pan-American Exposition at Dallas Sept. 6-7. Auction and exhibition will feature the meeting.

Naval Cancels — Cachets

By MARSHALL R. HALL
ANCS 10

1767 Bedford Road, Columbus, Ohio

National Aiglon cachets will be sponsored by Frederick Horton, Box 390, Port Chester, N. Y., for the following events: birthdays of the Arkansas, Marblehead, Claxton, Chandler, Reuben James, Stewart, Sturtevant, Avocet, Medusa, Ortolan, Boggs and Wyoming. Send your covers immediately, with forwarding. Also, cachet to commemorate Constitution day, to be mailed from five ships.

Weston Satterly, 1830 Fiftieth street, Brooklyn, N. Y., will sponsor a cachet to commemorate creation of our first navy by the Continental Congress and it will be in two colors, cancelled on a ship. Not more than two covers per individual.

Anybody knowing the present address of Alfred T. Frick, who was mail clerk on the now decommissioned Barracuda, is requested to forward same to R. V. Walton, Box 628, Dublin, Ga., as Walton has some covers and stamps to send Frick and cannot locate him.

Collectors who keep covers with Tazewell G. Nicholson, active sponsor in Portsmouth, Va., are notified that his address has been changed to Box 32. Clip this for future use.

John G. Noble, 1333 Fairfield Road, Victoria, B. C., writes me that collectors may have the cancels of the Canadian cruisers Fraser and Skeens by sending covers to them at Victoria, and using 3-cent Canadian stamps. If you want the other Canadian warships, the St. Laurent and Saguenay, address them at Halifax, N. S., also using Canadian postage.

Our old friend, Eric O. Tauer, who made the Texas famous for friendly service a few years ago, is now on the Maryland, San Pedro, Calif., if you old timers want to drop him a note. Vacation ended, we shall try to carry on for another year.

Coronations Are Gone

We are officially advised by the postmaster of New Guinea that the supply of the 2d. Coronation stamp is exhausted and no further full sets will be available. This is official. Unofficially, we understand the Coronation Morocco have gone obsolete, but no definite word has been received yet from official sources.

The Coronation stamps like the Jubilees have brought out a lot of new British Colonial collectors—a much higher percentage than the Jubilees because originally the sets were very cheap considering so many stamps in the lot (averaged 5c each). Many new issue customers and many collectors, there are many beginning to collect George VI starting from the Coronations on, over the years will form a beautiful and immensely valuable collection. The stamps of the colonies will be in most cases larger and more beautiful than ever. We believe the old type Die 1 and 2 stamps are a thing of the past. Both the crown agents and dominion postmasters recognize the eye appeal of good looking stamps of the pictorial type.

A new organization of collectors known as the Coast Philatelic Club of California has been formed at Laguna Beach. Business and professional men and women of twelve towns between Long Beach and San Diego are members. Monthly dinners will alternate between the communities. George E. Higgins of San Clemente, formerly of Columbus, Ohio, is president. H. M. Hepburn, Huntington Beach, is secretary.

A New Auction Plan

In this issue of the weekly, the Y. Souren Company of New York suggest in an advertisement, a new plan for holding Auctions. The Company solicit our readers to write them and express their opinion on the plan. They will adopt the plan if it meets with the approval of the collectors at large.

We shall make no comment on the merits of the plan as we will not wish to influence our readers in this matter. At a later date, after the vote has been taken, we will be glad to discuss the proposed plan.

Grossman's New List

Part 4 of Catalogue Number 85 has just been issued by the Grossman Stamp Company of New York. This latest list includes many of the recent new issues even including numerous of the Coronation sets, etc., and should be in the hands of all dealers.

Astounding

In a letter dated July 24th, the Memphis Stamp Shop of Memphis, Tenn., send new advertising copy and wind up their letter with this paragraph:

"Results from our previous ads have been astounding."

20,000 readers mean a sure market for any good material that is offered in an attractive manner and at a right price.

New Linprint Price List

Since getting set in our new location one of our first thoughts has been to revise and rewrite our price list. This is being done and we are adding many items to this list which have previously been omitted. Our new list when ready will be three or four times as large as any previous list we have offered.

Meghrig Wholesale Catalog

The 1937 edition of the Wholesale Catalogue of M. Meghrig & Sons, Inc., of New York is now ready for distribution. If you have not received a copy you should inquire for one at once. Besides the usual line of choice foreign sheets, packets and single stamps as well as albums and accessories, this list contains an extensive offering of United States stamps which should make it a desirable catalogue for every dealer to have at hand.

Subscription Campaign

Now that Linn's Weekly Stamp News is located and has ample space for growth, and expansion, we are starting a campaign to increase our subscription list. We should like to advertise in both "STAMPS" and Meckel's Weekly but advertising copy sent both of these papers for publication is refused by them. We naturally wonder if the publishers of these papers are afraid of the competition that a first class publication at 25c per year would give them. Not being able to reach new collector names through other papers, we are planning our campaign to work through the assistance of our present readers. We are going to ask our more than 18,000 readers to help introduce our paper to new subscribers for it's new names we are after in order to build our list up several thousand more copies per week. Watch our offers from time to time in this paper. We believe we can make some offers that will encourage you to help introduce our paper to new readers.
